

A yellow speech bubble with a tail pointing towards the bottom-left corner, set against a dark blue background.

Word of the Week

Word of the Week

Egalitarianism
(noun)

Are you familiar with this word?

What does it mean?

Can you use it in a sentence?

Word of the Week

Egalitarianism (noun)

Definition

the belief that all people are equal and deserve equal rights and opportunities.

Word of the Week

Egalitarianism (noun)
the belief that all people are equal and deserve equal rights and opportunities.

Examples

“Egalitarianism builds on the concept of social equality.”

“There is a culture built on the principles of egalitarianism.”

“Racial Justice Sunday is an opportunity to think about the principles of egalitarianism.”

Can you come up with your own?

Word of the Week

Egalitarianism (noun)
the belief that all people are equal and deserve equal rights and opportunities.

Synonyms

Justice

Equality

Democracy

Antonyms

Elitism

Unfairness

Injustice

Word of the Week

This Sunday is Racial Justice Sunday

This year the bishops in our country said that we should...

See one another in the life of the Church

Word of the Week

A reading from the first Book of Samuel

But the Lord said to Samuel, “Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.”

The Word of the Lord - Thanks be to God.

Word of the Week

Do you judge people by their appearance or their heart?

How can you help to make sure that everyone feels included and welcome in our school?

Word of the Week

‘Seeing one another in the life of the Church’

In preparation for Racial Justice Sunday, why not find out about a Catholic Saint from South America, Asia or Africa?

Create a poster about the Catholic Saint that you choose and send it to Mr Mihailovic to receive a St Mark point.