

St Mark's Word of the Week

Exaltation

Are you familiar with this word?

What does it mean?

Can you use it in a sentence?

Exaltation (noun)

Definition

A feeling or state of extreme happiness.

Examples:

- There is a feeling of great exaltation as Christmas approaches.
- The city was swept up in the mood of exaltation.

Can you come up with your own?

Exaltation (noun)

Definition

A feeling or state of extreme happiness.

Can you think of any synonyms?

- Happiness
- Joyfulness
- Jubilation

Can you think of any antonyms?

- Sadness
- Sorrow
- Despondency

Heterogenous

Panache

Plethora

Indomitable

Anachronism

Equanimity

Bibliophile

Philanthropy

A stylish, grand or flamboyant manner.

A person who collects or has a great love of books.

A large amount of something.

Strongly brave, determined and difficult to defeat or frighten.

Diverse in character or content

A thing belonging to a period other than that in which it exists.

The desire to promote the welfare of others.

Calmness and composure, especially in a difficult situation.

Quiz time

Can you match the word of the week to the definition?

Heterogenous

A stylish, grand or flamboyant manner.

Panache

A person who collects or has a great love of books.

Plethora

A large amount of something.

Indomitable

Strong, brave, determined and difficult to defeat or frighten.

Anachronism

Diverse in character or content.

Equanimity

A thing belonging to a period other than that in which it exists.

Bibliophile

The desire to promote the welfare of others.

Philanthropy

Calmness and composure, especially in a difficult situation.