Mission of the Month

Human dignity

The Catholic Church teaches us about the inherent dignity of every human being. This means that every person, regardless of their background, culture, or beliefs, is created in the image of God and deserves to be treated with respect and kindness.

Word of the Week

Dignity (noun)

the state or quality of being worthy of honour or respect.

Challenges

- Take two minutes to discuss with your partner what treating someone with dignity means to you.
- Look out for opportunities in your House Assemblies this week to see how you can put the Catholic Social Teaching of Human Dignity into practice.
