

Read like a...

Mathematician

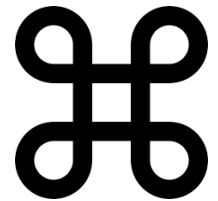

What is the context?

What is the scenario in the question?

Look for command words

What are you being asked to do?

Find important information

What information is required to answer the question? Look for the numbers, quantities, data etc.

Mathematicians read. We read and re-read word problems closely and carefully.